

MINISTRY OF REV GEORGE ONG

Vision

To impact the churches in Singapore and beyond through the preaching and teaching of the Word for His Glory.

Introduction

Rev. George Ong is an ordained minister with the Assemblies of God. He holds an M.Div. from the Trinity Theological College and a B.A. from the National University of Singapore. He is married to Kwee Siew and has 3 lovely children.

Ministry Experience

Prior to full-time service, Rev. George was actively involved in the Youth for Christ ministry in the 1970s and 80s. He was one of the key volunteer leaders, managing a 30-member volunteer staff in evangelism and discipleship.

He has once served as Honorary Secretary of the Executive Church Board in Grace Assembly of God, his home church since 1967. He was instrumental in helping to chart the church direction in the 1980s.

Before he became an itinerant preacher, Rev. George was a senior pastoral staff with Grace Assembly. He was one of the heads of department, leading a team of 11 full-time pastors in the Pastoral Care and Cell Ministry, Youth Ministry, Filipino Ministry and Prayer Ministry. In 1996, together with the Strategic Planning Committee, he spearheaded the establishment of the long-term plans, the mission statement, vision and corporate values of the church. He has also served as Sectional Presbyter of the Assemblies of God, overseeing the pastors in the western section of Singapore.

Rev. George has extensive experience ministering across denominations and cultures. To date, he has preached in 101 Singapore churches of different denominations: Methodist, Anglican, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Baptist, Brethren, Evangelical Free Church, CNEC, Salvation Army, Independent, Bible-Presbyterian and the Assemblies of God.

He has also preached overseas in India (Madras), Nepal, Bangladesh (Dhaka), Australia (Perth), Indonesia (Medan, Bogor, and Jakarta) and Malaysia.

A major highlight in Rev. George's overseas ministry was his involvement in conducting two strategic conferences together with Rev. Dr. David Lim, the Senior Pastor of Grace Assembly. The first was conducted in Jakarta in 1995 for pastors of churches with a congregational size of more than 400 people. The second was conducted in Bogor in 1996 at a Triennial Congress for 600 pastors. Also in 1999, he conducted a 4-day conference for the youths, cell leaders, Bible School students in a Medan church of more than 10, 000 members and preached in the worship services. In the same year, he was invited by a church in Perth to help them, in the capacity of a consultant, to develop a strategic plan for the church.

Rev. George Ong is also the Singapore Director of the UnveilinGLORY International and a certified trainer on “Cat and Dog theology” with UnveilinGLORY.

The UnveilinGLORY Seminar has been conducted in many churches in Singapore. The feedback to the seminar has been unanimously and consistently well received.

Within 18 months, he has written 12 humour books: Heavenly Humour (Volume 1), Humour of the Sexes (Volume 2), Humour Gems (Volume 3), Humour in the Professions (Volume 4), Kiddy Humour for All Ages (Volume 5), Animal Humour (Volume 6), Life & Death Humour (Volume 7), Humour Around the World (Volume 8), Hilarious Humour (Volume 9), A to Z Humour (Volume 10), Humour that Brightens Your Day (Volume 11) and Laugh & Learn Humour (Volume 12).

From feedback received, adults, youths and children have all found the humour in these books excellent and entertaining. In the stressful, demanding and uncertain world in which live, we need to laugh more, not less because laughter is the best medicine. The Gospel is also subtly weaved into some parts of the books, with the hope that non-Christians who read them may turn to Christ. Many pastors and leaders have also found them to be great resources for their preaching and teaching ministries.

Three of his humour volumes were reported in The Straits Times, the premier Newspaper in Singapore on 17 Dec 2005 as one of the top 20 trends in local books this year.
